Persons sending photographs of themselves to the old country cannot be too careful in having them made by responsible and careful photographers. Thousands of cheap pictures that have been made the last few years by the cheap tintype photographers, who endeavor to imitate the well-known Elite Gallery, but fail to do so except in price only, have already faded, besides giving a poor opinion of the American photographer. Therefore, you are safe to patronize the popular "Elite Gallery," where fine and staple work is executed in the highest points of art, which never tades and where no fancy or facilitious prices are asked, which solves the question of an overwhelming patronage. Bring the little ones. Use elevator at "Elite Gallery," 516 Market street, Pittsburg, Pa.

Surprising.

It is surprising to see where all the pianos go to. This remark was made in the music store of S. Hamilton yesterday, and it is surprising; but they go. Hamilton sold two grands, four uprights and one square yesterday, and this was no extraordinary days and it is made to be woodward at when day, and it is not to be wondered at, when you consider the quality of the goods handled and the extra bargains given. Think of it. A good piano, with outilt, at $190 and a good organ at $47 50, and then fancier ones at higher prices. The fact is, you can get just what you want at Hamilton's in the piano or organ line and at lower prices than you can buy the same quality anywhere else. Call and see him or write for cata-logue. S. Hamilton's, 91 and 93 Fifth ave.

No Circus at the P. C. C. C.

We don't gull the people of this city with flaring circus advertisements. We don't do business that way. No circus at our store, but a crowd of smiling, satisfied customers instead. Low prices always rule with us, and we never lower the quality by reducing the price. Our $10 and $12 suits are selling fast; they are cut in cutaways and sacks and you have 100 styles to select from. P. C. C. C., cor. Grant and Diamond sts., opp. the new Court House.
